

SPONSORSHIP GUIDELINES FOR TRINITY ORTHODONTICS

Thank you for your interest in including Trinity Orthodontics as a sponsor for your event. Trinity Orthodontics sponsors dozens of special events throughout the year to celebrate our neighborhoods, educational programs and other diverse opportunities of those in need. Please see the guidelines below for proper submission of sponsorship requests. Proposals and inquiries must be submitted at least one month prior to the sponsorship event deadline for consideration.

To submit your sponsorship request, drop off, email or mail your requests to:

What you need to know about Trinity Orthodontics:

The mission of Trinity Orthodontics is to make a difference in our patients' day and have an impact on their lives. In doing so, we strive to take special care of the needs of our patients, our communities, our employees and their families. Trinity's staff prides itself with 75+ years of combined experience in the Orthodontic world and we have been guided by strong values which include:

- * Integrity
- * Patient Satisfaction
- * Community
- * innovation
- * Diversity
- * Teamwork
- * Love

"You shall do what is right and good in the sight of the Lord." Deut. 6:18

To consider your sponsorship request, you should be a current patient of Trinity Orthodontics. Your event should be logical and relevant to helping your community or those less fortunate. Events should offer ways for Trinity Orthodontics to become involved in your community, or school, whether through educational or social initiatives.

Please include the following information with your written proposal:

- Timetable (due date for sponsorship funds, participation and artwork specs/format)
- Specific sponsorship request (what is the sponsorship for, who/what does it benefit)
- Specifics: (who is check made out to, mailing address for artwork and donations)
- Not-for-profit status, if applicable, include Tax ID number
- Publicity and print samples (clips/tapes/photos) from previous year if available

Thank you in advance for the opportunity to be part of your special event! Please understand we are unable to be a part of every event submitted for sponsorship. We may not be able to support your event financial, but please know we will be supporting you through prayer.
